

Hyperpraise

1. She stands be - fore us of - fer - ing her voice,
 2. Her prais - es do not ben - e - fit just God
 3. This ho - ly gift ex - tends through - out the place,
 4. I know this for she gives a smile of love,
 5. Her praise is not like oth - ers' rou - tine songs;

A per - fect gift un - blem - ished, to the Lord.
 But an - y - one who hears her song with force,
 Ex - hil - a - rat - ing all with Heav - en's glee.
 Not out of ob - li - ga - tion or of debt
 Its pow - er, fueled with pas - sion does tran - scend.

She sings with un - matched beau - ty by her choice
 For God is pleased and gives a ho - ly nod
 Her praise ex - tends not on - ly from her face
 But mere - ly a con - vey - ance from a - bove
 It's Hy - per - praise with pow - er that be - longs

rit.

To praise our God with mel - o - dies out - poured.
 Of bless - ings to re - flect back to its source.
 But from her heart where God en - joys to be.
 That on - ly God him - self could in her set.
 In Heav - en's King - dom e - ven to the end.
